BAPTIST.

Fifty Bible students of Mount Pleasant met on Wednesday evening at the Immanuel Baptist Church and organized a Bible study class which is to be conducted for one hour each Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. The meeting was addressed by Don O. Shelton, president of the National Bible Institute of New York City, and by Rev. John Henry Troy, of California. Mr. Shelton spoke on "Some Essentials for Effective Christian Service," outlining the plan to be adopted in the new Bible class. Mr. Troy, who is to have charge of the class, outlined the nature of the teaching. There will be no charge for enrollment in the class. The first meeting for study and enrollment will be held in the Immanuel Baptist Church next Wednesday, June 21 and all Bible students are invited.

At the Second Baptist Church tomorrow evening at 7:30 Miss Richardson will give an organ recital. At 8 the pastor, Rev. Howard I. Stewart, will begin a series of six sermons on "Famous Bible Battles and the Plan to be Adopted in the New Bible Class." The dates and topics are as follows: June 18, "The Battle of the Golden Wedge;" June 25, "The Battle of the Aimsless Arrow;" July 2, "The Battle of the Lamps and Pitchers;" July 9, "The Battle of the Fighting Stars;" July 16, "The Battle of the Fire Gods." At 11 a. m. tomorrow Mr. Stewart will preach on the topic, "The Man with an Angel's Face," the sermon to be followed by communion and reception of new members.

Rev. John E. Briggs, pastor of Fifth Baptist Church, will preach tomorrow morning on "The Living God." At night Rev. Dr. Clarence A. Vincent, of Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, will preach in Fifth Church and the pastor will administer the ordinance of baptism.

Rev. Dr. J. Milton Waldron will preach a special sermon at Shiloh Baptist Church tomorrow morning on "Things: Ought Christians to Practice It?" The subject of the sermon at night will be, "Light From the Word."

At Immanuel Baptist Church the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. H. Johnson, will preach tomorrow morning, while the service in the evening will be in charge of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. A choir of Endeavorers will sing and the C. E. committee on good citizenship and temperance will conduct the service.

The Sunday School of Immanuel Church will hold its picnic on Friday, June 23, at Great Falls.

Rev. E. Her Swem, pastor of Centennial Baptist Church, will preach tomorrow morning on the subject, "The Amen." After the evening sermon the finance of baptism will be administered to a number of persons.

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

The annual collection for the Pope will be taken in Catholic churches tomorrow. In a letter to the pastors of the various churches Rev. Louis Sticker, writing for the cardinal, calls attention to the fact that "the needs of the Holy See have become very pressing on account of the European war, which has cut off almost entirely the main sources of the Holy Father's income."

The men's association of the Chapel of the Nativity are making final arrangements for the giving of "The Old Time Fance" in the Parish Hall, Fourteenth street and Massachusetts avenue southeast, on Thursday, June 22.

This affair is one of the many social activities planned by the association, on behalf of the Chapel of the Nativity, and is part of their program of entertainment to encourage sociability and good fellowship among the membership.

LUTHERAN.

Rev. John T. Huddle, D. D., pastor of St. Paul's Church, made one of the alumni addresses at the commencement exercises of Roanoke College, Salem, Va., on Wednesday of this week.

Rev. Richard Schmidt, pastor of Zion Church, announces the purchase of the property adjoining the church which will be fitted up for the use of the primary department of the Sunday school.

METHODIST.

The speakers at the dedicatory service of Congress Heights M. E. Church tomorrow at 3 p. m. will be Rev. Whitford L. McDowell, D. D., district superintendent; Rev. L. Morgan Chambers, pastor of McKendree Church; and Col. Arthur E. Randle. Special music for the occasion will be furnished by the Men's Club Quartet and the church choir.

At Douglas Memorial Church the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. C. McLean, will preach tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock on "The Test of Love." The summer schedule for the Epworth League and congregation uniting in a twilight meeting from 7 to 8 o'clock. Prof. Louis D. Bliss, president of the Bliss Electrical School, will speak tomorrow evening and the pastor will administer the ordinance of baptism.

"God's Best Name" is the theme of Rev. Dr. W. R. Wedderspoon's sermon tomorrow morning in Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, and at "The Bright Hour" service at 8 o'clock he will begin a series of sermons on the topic, "The Joy of Life."

"The Bright Hour" will continue throughout the summer months, offering an open door for Sunday evening service, when many churches discontinue services during the summer.

At Foundry Church the Epworth League speaker for tomorrow evening will be Rev. George Buckler, on the topic, "Christian Activity." According to the Ascension, to the priesthood, special service will be held in that church tomorrow. Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, presiding bishop of the United States will preach at 11 a. m. and Dr. Neils will preach at 8 p. m.

EPISCOPAL.

In observance of the twelfth anniversary of the ordination of Rev. Dr. J. H. Johnson, rector of the Church of the Ascension, to the priesthood, special services will be held in that church tomorrow. Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, presiding bishop of the United States will preach at 11 a. m. and Dr. Neils will preach at 8 p. m.

The music will be especially appropriate. In the morning Baumbach's Te Deum will be sung, with incidental parts taken by Misses Woodward and Bayton and Messrs. B. Frank Myers and George Myers. The morning anthem will be "O, for a Closer Walk with God," with solo by Miss McLearn. The evening anthem will be, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," with solo by Miss Woodward.

The had weather of a part of the past week did not affect the success of the summer school in session at Cathedral Close, provision having been made to transfer all of the outdoor program to convenient quarters in case of need. The enrollment in the school this year was 132, a gain of nine over last year, and thirty over the previous year. In addition to students from the District of Columbia, the following States were represented: Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia.

ASK HELP FOR WAR SUFFERERS.

An appeal to proper America in behalf of the distressed people of war ridden Europe is voiced in a message which is being sent by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America to one hundred thousand pastors, to be by them presented to the people of the United States in order that some adequate steps may be taken to send such relief as may be possible to the suffering. The war relief organizations have united in urging the Federal Council to bring before the people of the churches the need and the opportunity, to the end that unselfish contributions may be made for the benefit of the orphans, the blinded, the widows, the homeless, the starving.

It is suggested that community committees be appointed and community funds be established, that the children of Sunday schools and day schools be organized in behalf of the suffering children of Europe, and that interest be expressed through groups in the churches and in the communities.

PRESBYTERIAN.

Judge Stanton J. Peelle, of this city, has been named by the new moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly, Rev. Dr. John A. Marquis, as a member of the committee to investigate the relations between the Presbyterian theological seminaries and the assembly. The appointment of this committee resulted from the efforts of the Cincinnati, Washington, and other presbyteries to exclude the New York Presbytery because of its ordination of certain graduates of Union Theological Seminary.

The committee consists of three ministers and four laymen, as follows: Ministers—Rev. Dr. James David Moffat, of Washington, Pa., until recently president of Washington and Jefferson College, chairman; Rev. Dr. John Timothy Stone, of the Fourth Church, Chicago; Rev. Dr. John F. Patterson, of the Central Church, Orange, N. J. Elders—all of whom are lawyers—Stanton J. Peelle, of Washington, D. C.; James DeWitt Andrews, of New York City; Nathan G. Moore, of Chicago; J. E. Cunningham, of Harrisburg, Pa.

In the New York Avenue Church tomorrow Rev. William Bishop Gates, of the Scotch Presbyterian Church, of New York, will preach. Mr. Gates is the son of Dr. Merrill E. Gates, of this city. After graduating from Amherst College and Union Theological Seminary he became assistant in West End Presbyterian Church, then the organizer of Wells Memorial Church, Brooklyn, which within a year became self supporting. He is active in evangelistic, lay and shop meetings and all men's and boys' work. To his public gifts is added special training as a musician.

At the morning service of the Fourth Presbyterian Church tomorrow the pastor, Rev. Dr. Joseph T. Kelly, will speak on "The Confession of Christ." In the evening Dr. Kelly will lead an evangelistic service in the tent on the church lot, corner Thirtieth and Fairmont streets, weather permitting, or in the church if it is inclement. Thursday night will be devoted to a preparatory service for Holy Communion which is to be held Sunday, June 25. The large chorus choir, under the direction of James A. MacElwain, will sing at the Sunday evening evangelistic service.

Those interested in teacher training are invited to enroll in the new class, under the direction of Miss Eleanor White, at the Fourth Presbyterian Church. Full information can be obtained from the general secretary of the church. The young people of Fourth Church will have charge of the young people's prayer meeting at the corner of Fourteenth and Kenyon streets, this evening, at 7:30.

The Boy Scouts, of troop 45, will have a rally and shindig in their club rooms at Fourth Church Tuesday evening, June 20. Local officers of the Boy Scout organization and the troop committee will be guests.

At Gunton-Temple Memorial Presbyterian Church, Fourteenth and R streets northwest, tomorrow, at the 11 o'clock service, Old Folks' Day will be observed with appropriate exercises. The pastor, Rev. Dr. C. Everett Granger, will preach on the topic, "Ye Beautiful Years."

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

Rev. Earle Willey, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, who is a trustee of Bethany College, at Newburg, W. Va., recently attended the commencement exercises of that institution. Dr. Willey delivered an address and presented the Willey oratorical prize. The latter was won this year by John Lewis, of this city, a student in the agricultural department of the college. Four hundred students matriculated at Bethany College during the past year, and the school is in a very prosperous condition.

Dr. Willey will occupy the pulpit of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church tomorrow. The topic of his morning sermon will be "Self-culture Versus Christ-culture."

The trial of the unified service—a combination of Bible school and church service into a continuous two-hour session—has been so successful that the Fifteenth Street Christian Church will adopt this plan in lieu of the two morning services formerly held. The unified service opens at 10 o'clock and closes at noon.

The mission class of the Bible school elected the following officers this week: President, Mrs. B. Flather; vice president, Miss Lillian Henderson; secretary, Miss Bertie Lane; treasurer, Miss Minnie Hohn.

CONGREGATIONAL.

Rev. Clarence A. Vincent, D. D., pastor of Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, will conduct the service tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The music will be in charge of Claude Robeson, organist, the program to be as follows: Organ prelude, "A Solemn Melody" (Davies); anthem, "The Lord Is My Strength and Song" (Hadden); offertory, tenor solo, "It Was for Me" (Blount); Charles D. Church; organ postlude, "Praeludium" from First Sonata (Becker).

The subject for consideration tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by the Adult Bible Class will be "The Christian Conquest of Western Europe," the leader to be the pastor, Rev. Clarence A. Vincent, D. D.

The services of the Sunday school will begin at 9:30 o'clock until the first Sunday in July, when the hour will be changed to 10 o'clock for the summer months. Class formation will then be suspended and the lesson presented from the platform.

The pastor, Dr. Vincent, will attend the meeting of the commission of temperance of the Congregational churches of the United States, of which he is the chairman, to be held at New Haven, Conn., June 27 and 28. He will return to Washington for the church service the first Sunday in July, after which he will join his family at their summer home at Henniker, N. H., on the shores of Lake Pleasant. His pastoral work will be resumed the first Sunday in September.

The choir of First Congregational Church will join in a picnic this evening, meeting at the church at 5 o'clock. The outing of the Sunday school of this church will be held at Great Falls on Thursday, June 22.

Md. Sunday School Boys to Meet. On Tuesday and Wednesday, June 27 and 28, Prince George County will hold a boys' congress, representatives from the various Sunday schools of the county, after which the boys of 14 and 20 will meet in Hyattsville, to discuss problems in connection with the Sunday school work of their county. The program will include a camp fire, with ceremonies that the public is invited to witness, but other meetings of the boys will be for boys only, and all discussion will be carried on by the boys, under the direction of the secondary department of the Prince George County Sunday School Association, and trained leaders. Entertainment will be provided by the people of Hyattsville and surrounding country. This is the first meeting of its kind ever held in the State of Maryland, and is preparatory to a similar congress for boys and girls of the State in connection with the State Sunday school convention in the early fall.

Marshall is Ready. Tells President: "I am Yours to Command." Vice President Marshall was quick to prepare for the forthcoming campaign. The following telegram announcing his readiness to begin the fight, was received by President Wilson yesterday: "In the fight which you are to win, I am always yours to command."

War Veterans to Meet. United Spanish War Veterans of the District today will meet in annual session at Pythian Temple. The meeting will be the sixteenth annual encampment of the veterans. Officers will be elected tonight and delegates will be appointed to attend the national encampment at Chicago in September. The meeting will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

Episcopalians Plan to Observe Consecration of Bishop Claggett

Work of Early Maryland Churchman Will Be Commemorated at Washington Cathedral Close Tomorrow with Sermon by Bishop Tuttle.

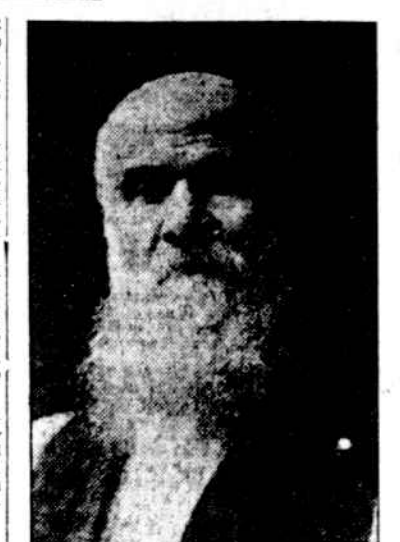

At Washington Cathedral Close, Mount St. Alban, tomorrow, at 4 o'clock, the memory of the first bishop of any church consecrated on American soil, Rt. Rev. Thomas John Claggett, D. D., will be commemorated in a special service.

Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle, of Missouri, who will preach the sermon in memory of Bishop Claggett, is one of the oldest bishops in the world in point of consecration, though still in full vigor and more active than many young men, and a preacher of remarkable power and originality.

The services will be held in the open air at the Peace Cross, weather permitting, otherwise in the Bethlehem Chapel. They will be conducted by the dean and canons of the cathedral, and others of the clergy of the diocese. A large attendance of Episcopalians, and of kinsmen of Bishop Claggett is expected.

The services will consist of special commemorative prayers, and appropriate psalms, Scripture readings and hymns. The full Cathedral Choir will lead the singing, supported by instrumental music. Edgar Priest, master of chorists, directing.

Career of Bishops. Bishop Tuttle, who will preach the sermon, was elected a bishop by general convention. When only 25, he had a year to reach canonical age, and then fore the revolution. He was consecrated bishop at Trinity Church, New York City, on September 17, 1892, and died at his home at Croome August 2, 1916. He united in himself the Scotch Episcopal succession through Bishop Seabury, of Connecticut, and the English succession through Bishops White, of Pennsylvania, Prevost, of New York, and Madison, of Virginia, and through him all the bishops of the Episcopal Church in the United States possess their orders.

RT. REV. THOMAS JOHN CLAGGETT, First Bishop of Maryland.

went out as a pioneer to the Rocky Mountain States, and laid the foundations of what have become great religious institutions in Utah, Nevada, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho.

Twenty years later he went to Missouri, and this year the church is celebrating with notable ceremonies, his golden jubilee as a bishop. Very appropriately he preaches the sermon in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of Bishop Claggett's death.

Dr. Claggett, who consecration as a bishop will be commemorated, died just 100 years ago, and was buried in his private family burying ground at his ancestral estate, Croome, in Prince George County, about twenty miles from Washington.

In 1835, on All Saints' Day, the first bishop of Washington, Dr. Satterlee, moved the remains and those of Dr. Claggett, who had been buried at Mount St. Alban. The bodies now lie beneath the chancel of St. Alban's Church, but will eventually be placed in the cathedral.

The inscription on the bishop's tombstone, to be seen in the chancel of St. Alban's Church, was written by Francis Scott Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner," a distinguished and devoted Episcopalian of his day and a life-long friend of Bishop Claggett.

Bishop Claggett came of a family who settled in Maryland in early years, and a man of character and high standing.

Bishop Claggett was made a deacon and a priest by the bishop of London in Lambeth Palace Chapel about ten years before the revolution.

BOTH WILSONS TO SPEAK.

President Will Address Labor Forces July 4.

President Wilson and Secretary of Labor Wilson will be the principal speakers at the big labor celebration that is to mark the dedication of the new home of the American Federation of Labor, Ninth street and Massachusetts avenue northwest, on the Fourth of July. A parade of more than 20,000 organized workers of the District will precede the exercises. A committee of the Central Labor Union is working day and night to make the celebration the biggest labor event ever held in the District.

WILSON LIKED PARADE.

President Sends Letter of Appreciation to Gude.

In a letter of congratulation to William F. Gude, yesterday, President Wilson declared Washington's preparedness parade was one of the best managed demonstrations he ever took part in. The letter read:

"May I not express to you as chairman of the citizens' executive committee in charge of the parade for preparedness the other day, my admiration and appreciation of the success of the demonstration. It seemed to me admirably managed in every respect, and I enjoyed my own participation in it."

McCormick May Lose U. S. Post.

Vance McCormick, chosen by President Wilson to guide his campaign, must resign his position as a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, if he desires to accept appointment to the political job, it was stated at the Federal Reserve Board here yesterday. Under a regulation of the board, no man may be a director of a Federal Reserve Bank if he holds political office.
